The analytic skills that open up literature also have their uses when you watch a television program or film and, more important, when you attempt to sort out the significance of the people, places, and events that constitute your own life. Literature enhances and sharpens your perceptions. The Compact Bedford Introduction to Literature

COURSE DESCRIPTION:
ENGL102-J2 English Composition II 3 credits

English Composition II Honors is a course designed to strengthen students’ skills as writers and to focus on analysis and argument. Assignments include critical examination of literature and an essay using research and documentation utilizing the MLA style sheet. Emphasis is on writing as part of the processes of thinking and learning.

Prerequisite: A- or Above in English Composition I

TEXTS:

OBJECTIVES:
By the end of the course students will be able to

1. Write thesis driven essays that integrate textual analysis;
2. Synthesize primary & secondary source materials to develop and support a persuasive argument;
3. Evaluate and analyze, orally and in writing, fiction and nonfiction with an increased understanding of rhetorical context;
4. Read texts with an increased understanding of context and audience;
5. Demonstrate effective use of language, style, structure, format, syntax, grammar, and mechanics;
6. Apply research and documentation methods that in turn can be used across disciplines;
7. Build a context for understanding class readings by linking those texts to other academic disciplines and to universal human experience.
*Critical thinking, technology skills, oral communication, quantitative skills, reading, and writing.

ATTENDANCE: More than 5 hours of unexcused absence per class per semester will result in a lower grade and/or failure. You are responsible for what happens in this class, whether you are here or not. Please try to avoid missing any class time. Perfect attendance awards you with a grade of 100% for class participation. (10% of your grade)

NOTE: When you are here, be alert, attentive, prepared, and eager to participate and learn. Arrive on time. Please direct your behavior to support the learning of others and yourself.

Contact Person: _______________________________

ESSAYS AND ASSIGNMENTS: Please submit themes and assignments written outside of class on the date indicated on the syllabus. Late papers will not be accepted. Under extreme circumstances, an e-mailed paper will save you from receiving a zero on the paper; however, you also must pass in a paper copy at the next class meeting. In no case may work be submitted for evaluation more than two weeks after the due date.

You will write 5 papers for the course: 4 short interpretive papers of approximately 750-1000 words, one of which will involve research, and one 1500 word paper involving research. Please set up individual conferences with me to discuss your writing. If you see me, have proof of using The Writing Center or Etutoring.org or submit a paper earlier than the due date, you may revise the paper for a higher grade. Please use The Writing Center or E-tutoring for additional help.

GRADING:
Please refer to the College Bulletin for an explanation of the Massasoit Community College grading system. Your grade will be calculated as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Percentage</th>
<th>Component</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>60%</td>
<td>Essays</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>20%</td>
<td>Research Paper</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>10%</td>
<td>Community Outreach Project and Journal</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>10%</td>
<td>Participation and Attendance</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

According to Massasoit’s grading: A 93-100, A- 90-92, B+ 88-89, B 83-87, B- 80-82, C+ 78-79, C 73-77, C- 70-72, D+ 68-69, D 63-67, D- 60-62, F 59 and below. Note: Students have six months from the final day of class to question their final grades. Students who receive an Incomplete must complete the required work by the end of the next semester or the Incomplete automatically becomes an F.

STANDARDS FOR WRITING: Essays written outside of class should be double-spaced, typed, with one-inch margins on all sides. The use of word processing will facilitate the process of revision. For in-class assignments, please write legibly with blue or black ink in a blue book or on white theme paper. Write on one side of the paper only.
NOTE: IT IS YOUR RESPONSIBILITY TO HOLD ALL PAPERS, QUIZZES, ETC., UNTIL YOU RECEIVE A FINAL GRADE. PLEASE HAVE A COPY OF ALL PAPERS PASSED IN TO ME.

PLAGIARISM: Plagiarism means using another person’s words or ideas without giving that person credit. It is a form of cheating and theft, but it can easily be avoided by using the documentation we will practice this semester. Plagiarism means an F for the paper and may mean an F for the course. In addition, all work must be passed in to www.turnitin.com.

CLASS METHODOLOGY: Reading, writing, revision, lecture, discussion, small group work, exercises, quizzes, peer-assessment, self-assessment, and conference. This Honors class will function as a college seminar encouraging expression of your views and ideas and sharing of supplemental reading.

ACCOMMODATIONS STATEMENT: “Students with disabilities who believe that they may need accommodations in the classroom are encouraged to contact a Disability Counselor; Andrea Henry at x 1805, Julie McNeil-Kenerson at x 1424 or Cathy Brogna at x 1425, as soon as possible, in order to ensure that such accommodations are implemented in a timely fashion”.
