

Child Care Policies and Issues

CCED 211

Course Outcomes:

To explore the early history of the day care movement in order to understand the present day system.

To examine the role of day care internationally in order to provide the best possible educational outcomes for young children

To identify the laws and regulations governing day care in Ma. in order to offer a program that meets necessary state requirements.

To recognize and respond to the various social trends as they relate to day care in order to adequately support children and families.

To discuss the various educational trends as they relate to day care in order to offer developmentally appropriate experiences to children.

To review and evaluate public policy in regard to day care in order to be able to advocate for children, families, and early childhood professionals