

Practicum in Child Care

CCED401

Course Outcomes:

1. To gain practical experience working with young children in order to become an effective teacher
2. To develop techniques for dealing with specific learning situations in an early childhood setting in order to meet the individual and group needs of the children
3. To practice various modes of observation and evaluation in order to implement developmentally appropriate practices
4. To understand the roles of teacher and lead teacher in a child care setting in order to assess career opportunities