

ECED401-Practicum I in Early Education: Course Outcomes

- To gain practical experience working with young children in order to become an effective teacher
- To develop techniques for dealing with specific learning situations in an early childhood setting in order to meet the individual and group needs of the children
- To practice various modes of observation and evaluation in order to implement developmentally appropriate practices
- To understand the roles of teacher and lead teacher's in early childhood settings