

HSRV 400
Special Study in Human Services

1. The student will enhance their ability to work with a faculty member to develop goals, outcomes, and a plan to realize and evaluate them in order to build skill in independent and interdependent learning.
2. The students will set appropriate and achievable learning goals in order to become a more independent learner and to become more skillful in goals setting in order to assist future clients to set workable goals.
3. The student will develop outcomes and assessments appropriate to their set goals in order to become a more independent learner and to become more skillful in conceptualizing outcomes and assessments in order to assist future clients to develop outcomes and appropriate assessments.
4. The student will use data gathering methods appropriate to realizing their goals and outcomes.
5. The student will assess own learning and develop plans for sustaining continued learning in the topic areas chosen for inclusion in this special study course.
6. The student will strengthen competency in reading, writing, oral communication, and critical thinking in order to increase success in this and other courses and in the workplace.