The Akillian Gallery
at Massasoit Community College is pleased to announce “Explorations 2006”
Opening Tuesday, January 17th

A group show featuring the works of:
Carol Chisholm, Fritz Ducheine, J. Marshall Dyke
Lafayette Hayes, Frank Jannette, Sharen Lindquist
Jim Moran, Carol Moses, and Lori Schill

“Explorations 2006” brings together this group of unique artists, each expressing themselves through non-traditional work. The mediums and techniques are as varied as the artists themselves, yet their works compliment each other. While the works may seem unrelated, a closer inspection reveals they are intuitively connected. Each seeking to explore, express and understand the world and their relationship to it.

Frank Jannette, oil painter and sculptor offers the following, “Social issues, state of mind and high emotion interest me. Through art I attempt to express compassion for the human condition”. Jim Moran has devoted himself to the creation of large expressionistic paintings and collages based upon philosophical and religious themes inspired by the Abrahamic tradition. Carol Moses uses “strong colors and non-representational forms to describe structural connections and relationships.” Lori Schill paints “so I can understand what is within me that connects me to nature and the rest of the world”.

This innovative collection of works will evoke thought and emotion. The artists’ hope it will also inspire you.

Gallery Hours: Tuesday – Friday, 10am-2pm., or by appointment.
All are welcome to meet the artists at the Closing Reception,
Friday, February 3rd, 4pm to 8pm
