

Massasoit Community College to Host a Symposium on Public & Workplace Violence

Presenters to address workplace violence in the healthcare setting for Criminal Justice, Social Science, Mental Health, Educations Academics and Practitioners

March 27, 2013

Brockton – Massasoit Community College will host a symposium entitled “Is Your Organization Prepared?” on public and workplace violence at The Conference Center at Massasoit, 770 Crescent Street, Rte. 27, Brockton, MA, on Friday, April 19, 2013 at 8:30am. The keynote speaker, Dr. James Alan Fox, is the Lipman Family Professor of Criminology, Law, and Public Policy at Northeastern University. He is the author of 18 books, including Violence and Security on Campus. He has also published dozens of journal and magazine articles, and hundreds of freelance columns in newspapers around the country, primarily in the areas of multiple murder, youth crime, school and campus violence, workplace violence, and capital punishment. Event presenters, Chris Pontus and Peg O'Connor, have strong healthcare backgrounds and will focus on the prevention of violence and the protection of workers and patients in a healthcare setting.
