

Massasoit Community College to Offer Home Health Aide Certificate Program in Partnership with Father Bill's & MainSpring

100-hour Home Health Aide Program to begin Thursday, June 27

June 14, 2013

Brockton, MA – Massasoit Community College is offering a 100-hour Home Health Aide Certificate Program that will begin on June 27, 2013. Classes are scheduled to meet Mondays, Wednesdays and Thursdays from 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. on the Brockton Campus. The program will equip students with the knowledge and skills needed to enter the healthcare field as a home health aide.

Classes will be taught by Pat Boyd, RN, BSN. Ms. Boyd is a registered nurse who has been practicing for more than 20 years in the areas of cardiac care, geriatrics, and home health. She is a member of Sigma Theta Tau Nursing Honor Society, Theta Alpha Chapter. Students will receive training in the three home health career areas – homemaker, personal care homemaker and home health aide. Upon successful completion of the program, students will receive a Home Health Aide certificate.

This is a Section 30 approved program that also qualifies for federal Trade Adjustment Assistance (TAA) and Individual Training Account (ITA) funds.

An interview is required before registration. To set up an interview or for more information, please call Rose Paquette at 508-588-9100, x1307.

Founded in 1966, in the heart of southeastern Massachusetts, Massasoit Community College is a public two-year college in the Massachusetts Public Higher Education System. It is accredited by the New England Association of Schools and Colleges (NEASC), one of the six regional accrediting bodies in the United States. Many departments carry additional accreditations. The College offers a full spectrum of associate's degree programs in arts, sciences, and applied sciences as well as one year and short term certificates across a variety of occupations and interests. In addition the College offers corporate and job skills training courses.