

Massasoit Community College hosts U.S. Senator Elizabeth Warren for a forum with students about the rising costs of college education and financial aid on Tuesday, January 21, 2014.

January 21, 2014

Students, faculty, staff, and trustees participated in an important conversation with U.S. Senator Elizabeth Warren about the rising costs of college education and financial aid in a positive, engaging, and interactive session.

Massasoit Community College will host FAFSA Day on Monday, February 10th at 6:30 p.m. in the upper student lounge of the Student Center on the Brockton Campus. This event is free and open to the public for all who need assistance in completing their FAFSA.

Link to the photos from Senator Warren's visit to Massasoit Community College.

Founded in 1966, in the heart of southeastern Massachusetts, Massasoit Community College is a public two-year college in the Massachusetts Public Higher Education System. It is accredited by the New England Association of Schools and Colleges (NEASC), one of the six regional accrediting bodies in the United States. Many departments carry additional accreditations. The College offers a full spectrum of associate's degree programs in arts, sciences, and applied sciences as well as one year and short term certificates across a variety of occupations and interests. In addition the College offers corporate and job skills training courses.