

Massasoit Welcomes Mr. Doug Walo

April 8, 2014

Brockton, MA –Massasoit Community College announces the appointment of Doug Walo to the position of Director of Middleborough Instructional Site.

Mr. Walo received his B.A. in Political Science from Gettysburg College and his M.A. in Higher Education Administration from Boston College. He has served as the Manager of the Student Organization Center and Student Life Events at Harvard College, as the Housing Administrator in the Dean of Students Office at Harvard Law School, and as a Financial Aid Assistant/Financial Aid Coordinator at Harvard Law School.

Mr. Walo will oversee the continued growth of our instructional site at the former Lynch School in Middleborough Center. In addition to a focus on enhancing the student experience through services, resources and activities, he will partner with businesses and community organizations to identify needs and cultivate opportunities for collaboration.

Director Doug Walo

Founded in 1966, in the heart of southeastern Massachusetts, Massasoit Community College is a public two-year college in the Massachusetts Public Higher Education System. It is accredited by the New England Association of Schools and Colleges (NEASC), one of the six regional accrediting bodies in the United States. Many departments carry additional accreditations. The College offers a full spectrum of associate's degree programs in arts, sciences, and applied sciences as well as one year and short term certificates across a variety of occupations and interests. In addition the College offers corporate and job skills training courses.