

Massasoit Community College Trustee Peter G. Asiaf, Jr. Sworn in for Second Term

June 16, 2014

Massasoit Community College is pleased to announce that Governor Deval Patrick has appointed Peter G. Asiaf, Jr. of Brockton to its Board of Trustees. Mr. Asiaf was sworn in before the Board meeting on June 11, 2014. Mr. Asiaf has served on the Board of Trustees of Massasoit Community College since November 2007, when he joined the Board to complete the term of a Trustee, Michael Caljow, who had resigned.

Mr. Asiaf is a lifetime resident of the City of Brockton who has a strong commitment to the community, as evidenced by his support of Brockton Little League and Brockton Youth Hockey. Additionally, he has a long history of public service, having held the elected positions of Brockton's Councilor-at-Large for twenty-five years and Plymouth County Commissioner for seven years.

"Mr. Asiaf's continued efforts to promote higher education are fueled by a true desire to improve the situations of the residents of this region, to the benefit of both individual lives and the region's greater economic development and prosperity," said Dr. Charles Wall, president of Massasoit Community College.

Founded in 1966, in the heart of southeastern Massachusetts, Massasoit Community College is a public two-year college in the Massachusetts Public Higher Education System. It is accredited by the New England Association of Schools and Colleges (NEASC), one of the six regional accrediting bodies in the United States. Many departments carry additional accreditations. The College offers a full spectrum of associate's degree programs in arts, sciences, and applied sciences as well as one year and short term certificates across a variety of occupations and interests. In addition the College offers corporate and job skills training courses.
